The Curse of Capistrano

by Johnston McCulley (1883-1958)

The Curse of Capistrano is the first work to feature the fictional character Zorro (zorro is the Spanish word for fox). The story was later republished under the name The Mark of Zorro. Senor Zorro is deemed an outlaw as he fights those in authority while seeking justice for the oppressed. He also woos and captures the heart of the lovely Senorita Lolita, but her father would see her married to the rich Don Diego Vega. Meanwhile, the ever-persistent Sgt. Gonzales is closing in on our lovers and means to see the end of Senor Zorro.
